

MontgomeryParks.org

Job Details

Maryland Emancipation Day - Nov. 5-7, 2010 - Historic Interpretation

Apply

Description

Celebrate history and participate during a multi-generational annual event celebrating the announcement of the emancipation of enslaved African Americans in Maryland. Volunteers needed to assist with event set-up/break-down at the site (assembling small tents, setting out chairs and tables); manning information tables and assisting with guided tours (for Henson Site only): Woodlawn Manor Cultural Park, Oakley Cabin and Josiah Henson Historic Site.

Additional Information

Emancipation Day activities will be held the following dates and times: Friday, 11/5, 6:00pm - 9:30 pm @ Woodlawn Manor | Saturday, 11/6, 8:30a-12p @ Woodlawn Manor + 11/6, 11:00am - 4:30pm @ Oakley Cabin | Sunday, 11/7, 11:00am - 4:00pm @ Josiah Henson Site (Uncle Tom's Cabin)

Volunteers under age 16, must be accompanied by a parent, or be a part of a registered group.

- Frequency: Occasionally
- Job Type: Event (1 - 7 Days)
- Minimum age for volunteers: 14
- Volunteer Type: Adult, Family, Senior (55+), Youth, Student Service Learning, Group
- Placement Preference(s): Historic Site Interpretation, Special Events

Location

Woodlawn Manor Park, Oakley Cabin and Josiah Henson Historic Site

Montgomery County, MD

Map

Location Description:

Woodlawn Manor Cultural Park is located at 16501 Norwood Road in Sandy Spring.

Josiah Henson Historic Site (aka "Uncle Tom's Cabin") is located at 11420 Old Georgetown Road, Bethesda, MD. Parking for the Henson Site is only available across the street at the Montgomery Aquatic Center at 5900 Executive Blvd.

Oakley Cabin African American Museum & Park is located at 3610 Brookville Rd, Olney, MD. Parking for Oakley Cabin events will be at the Longwood Local Park at 19330 Georgia Ave., Olney.

Contact

Contact: Shirl Spicer
Phone: 301-650-4373
Email: shirl.spicer@montgomeryparks.org

Return to Search Results